ABSTRACT

In the Indian society, the problem of dowry problem in various problems of women's life, drawing a lot of attention and human dignity is a disgrace. This problem can not only affect the life of a woman but also the opposite effect of family life, but also contrary to the economic life of the Indian society. In the present day, Dowry is increasing day by day. Organized efforts are required to abolish this practice and to remove it from the roots. It is important to know the causes, effects and prevention measures of dowry. Knowing the causes of dowry in the present article discusses the opposite effects and prevention measures on its female and female family.

Keywords: Dowry

INTRODUCTION

Dowry is a family problem as an exploitation of women. This problem creates a variety of adverse effects on the woman's life. Dowry problem is a major problem in the problem of female life in Indian society. Apart from the woman's personal life, this problem also creates adverse effects on the life of a mother's parents. Not only this, but there is adverse effect on the economic life-style of Indian society. That is why organized efforts are being done to eradicate the dowry system. The origin of the dowry system is based on traditional marriage organization, caste system, female-male inequality, concepts on social dignity, elderly marriage etc. Therefore, by bringing desirable changes in all these areas, it can be possible to eradicate the dowry process.

CAUSES

Practicing his late marriage

As a rule of intent to choose a partner in every cast of Indian society, the area for choice of partner becomes limited. Trouble raising the right partner in such a limited area arises. At such times, parents give high dowry to get the right entitlement for women.

The desire to marry a high court

The way to find a bride to a higher clan of the bride's family is to say the impediment. The bride's parents give a high dowry to her daughter to get married to a higher caste.

Marriage as a symbol of marriage in Hinduism

In Hinduism, marriage is termed as a norm, so parents try to get the groom's daughter married early, which results in giving a high dowry and giving it to the daughter.

Marriage arranged by parents

Dowry practice is associated with an autonomous marriage. Parents of the bride are ready to give dowry on the basis of their personal qualities and social status of the bride.
Partner’s Rules of Friendship
There has been a change in the choice of partner in modern times. In the selection of the groom, importance of education, family status, business nature and property is given so that the bride’s parents give high dowry to the eligible character.

Desire to get prestige in society
High dowry parents, it is me that giving a daughter a high dowry gives dignity to society so that dowry is given.

In-law's daughter's economic security
The parents of the girl, it is me that the financial security of the daughter is maintained by giving property so that dowry is given.

Daughter satisfaction of giving property
Traditionally, at the time of marriage, the parents get pleasure from giving clothes, ornaments, utensils and other things to their daughter, which is also present in the belief so that the dowry ratio is increased.

On the part of the boys, the desire to improve the economic condition
In modern times, the ambition of high life has remained at the center. The common families, as well as the higher education boys and their parents consider marriage to improve the economic condition so that the dowry dominates.

EFFECTS

Female burden of birth
Due to the inability to give dowry to poor parents and the difficulty of finding suitable classes for the bride, the bridegroom becomes a burden.

Unmarried
Due to high dowry, compulsory Singleness women of poor families remain.

Tighten the wedding
Due to high dowry, some women do not get the right treatment so that the couple gets married.

Woman's low position
The situation arising due to dowry points to the lower position of the female compared to the male.

Impacts on Damage Life
Marriages of male family members expect different things from the female party to expect some things to be taken. These expectations do not end in a bad way. The effect of which falls on the life of a maiden.

Suicides
The woman is in trouble when male and her family does not satisfy unheeded expectations of dowry. Women face suicide to face this situation.

Effects on Marriage
Dowry practice affects a woman's marriage age. Fear of dowry allows parents to get married sooner. In the early marriage, nicer parents can arrange their daughter's wedding due to the inability to give high dowry. In such situations, a woman gets married.
Sexual intercourse outside marriage
Dowry has a bad effect on the life of the couple. In which the woman does not have enough strength to get enough satisfaction in marriage after marriage. The woman is ready to build sexual relationships outside of marriage without the necessity for the intake of attachment or acceptance.

Impacts on Female Education
Usually, when a daughter reaches her marriage, her marriage is arranged. The idea of giving a higher education to a daughter like a son is not yet seen. Women's marriages are arranged for reaching higher education. Which affects women’s education?

Divorces
Due to dowry, female becomes a means of income. Such a woman leads a divorce, as a woman is not accepted as a partner, as a family member.

Corruptions and Bribery
Due to dowry, a big financial need arises to organize a child's marriage. To meet such financial needs, parents are drawn towards collecting money on illegal means. Due to deterioration in the problem of corruption and corruption in Indian society, there are many reasons which dowry is also one of the reasons.

MEASURES
Social reformers
During the British rule, Raja Ram Mohanrao opposed the oppression of dowry and emphasized female education. Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar also opposed this practice. Justice Rande tried to make dowry and marriage weddings. Indian Social Conference tried to abolish aristocracy, Tighten the wedding and dowry practice. Conferment adopted social reform approach through social legalization at the national level. Mahatma Gandhi emphasized gender equality and independence

Legal efforts
The dowry prohibitory law of 1961, the Dowry Prohibition Amendment Act, 1984, revised criminal law of 1983.

Partner’s Self-Examination
Due to the social acceptance of a woman and a man, a marriage that has been given to the marriage of the dowry system is given importance to the marriage of a spontaneous marriage.

Women’s self-sufficiency
If the woman becomes self-sufficient by admitting to education and business, she can get relief from dowry.

Improve caste
Dowry practices which are integrated with the caste, so that the dowry practice can be overcome by improving the caste.

Wedding bureau
Organizations such as the Wedding bureau help in finding a partner, giving a mentor for the person's choice and finding a suitable partner.
Social awareness

The number of deaths of dowry deaths is rising, and the phenomenon of having a lot of social awakening towards dowry problem is realized. Therefore, there is the need to bring social awareness to solve the problem of dowry.

CONCLUSION

Traditionally, the dowry practice was limited to the upper class or caste, it has been noted that it is spreading in the lower strata of the present day, Shri Nivas has noted. Due to this, the dowry system has spread in Calcutta's bogeys. Thus, in practice, the practice of dowry has been associated with higher social groups, but in the process of civilization it has spread even in the middle and lower groups. According to the aforementioned article, there are chapters of desegregation, dowry effects on women and woman's family and various efforts made for dowry intent.

REFERENCES

1. John Kanu: Social Problems
2. Mamoia: C.B. Social Problems and Social Disorganization
3. Clinard Marshal B. : Sociology of Deviant Behavior
4. Beteille Andre: Inequality and Social Change
5. Dube S. C.: Indian Society
6. Dube, Leela: Women and Kinship - Comparative Perspective on Gender
7. Ghurye G.S.: Social Tension in India